“A Chance to Soar”[©]

*We came with expectations and with our private walls
We found support and courage and dared to risk it all.*

Through hours of fun and laughter

We learned to live as friends;

And those we came to know and love

We'll remember 'til the end.

You are all a part of us, spread through the land.

Building friendships, special trust,

Bound together hand in hand.

*Tomorrow is an open door inviting you and me,
Giving us a chance to soar and wings to set us free.*
